

Are You Ready for 2008?

Develop Your Interviewing Skills – A Clear Path for Success

Career Development coaching is a “two-way process of exploring, learning and applying work-related solutions, leading to effective actions with the objectives of meeting your career development needs.”

What you will receive . . .

- A total of 6 hours of career coaching conversations to maximize your success by using a four step process:

Evaluate + Explore + Plan = Action

- An in-depth analysis and feedback on your last two annual performance appraisals, career development plans and annual goals.
- Knowledge to develop your work experience stories that will demonstrate your particular skills being applied within the workplace supplemented with one-on-one career coaching conversations to solidify your work experience stories.
- A course of action for 2008 to put your strengths to work and the techniques required to stand out and “sell” your personal brand.
- 2 hour group sessions for interview preparation and strategies
- 1 one hour practice interview session video-taped and debriefed
- Unlimited coaching Q & A emails throughout the year.

- Jump Start Your 2008 Career Goals!

- Focus on your wants and desired achievements.

You will be asked powerful questions and suggestions to:

enhance your self-awareness

explore stretch goals and challenges align company and personal goals

Establish your course of action for 2008.

Learn to market and promote your career skills.
